

The Peshawar High Court has awarded a letter of appreciation to a security guard to acknowledge his dedication in performance of his duty. According to details, security guard Mr. Rahat Gul stopped a person entering into PHC building and insisted for a thorough search but the man refused his body frisking and resorted to verbal abuse besides, started scuffling.

During the entire incident, the security guard remained steadfast and performed duty in a professional manner and did not allow the person without security search.

The PHC also announced a token cash price reward of Rs 5000 to security guard.

